*Go, tell it on the mountain,
over the hills and everywhere;
go, tell it on the mountain
that Jesus is His name.*

- 1 He possessed no riches, no home to lay His head;
He saw the needs of others and cared for them instead.

Go tell it on the mountain . . .

- 2 He reached out and touched them, the blind, the deaf, the lame;
He spoke and listened gladly to anyone who came.

Go tell it on the mountain . . .

- 3 Some turned away in anger, with hatred in the eye;
they tried Him and condemned Him, then led Him out to die.

Go tell it on the mountain . . .

- 4 'Father, now forgive them' – those were the words He said;
in three more days He was alive and risen from the dead.

Go tell it on the mountain . . .

- 5 He still comes to people, His life moves through the lands;
He uses us for speaking, He touches with our hands.

Go tell it on the mountain . . .
